SO YOU ARE YOUR OWN LAWYER

YOU FILED YOUR CASE.

YOU HAVE A HEARING DATE.

YOU HAVE PAPERS, WITNESSES,
AND TEXT MESSAGES.

NOW WHAT?

Acting as your own attorney can be scary... it isn't like all of those T.V. shows.

When you represent yourself, you are telling the Court that you will present your case like an attorney would.

What if I have information on Facebook that I want the Court to see?

Where do I sit?

Should I have a list of questions or do I just tell the Judge about my case?

Can I just hand my papers to the Judge?

What happens in Mediation?

If you qualify, Family Law Attorneys will meet with you to answer your questions AT NO COST TO YOU.

Afternoon appointments are scheduled with attorneys and held VIRTUALLY the 2nd Tuesday and 3rd Thursday of every month.
